

Authority to Publish

The Antiochian Village, Antiochian Orthodox Archdiocese and your local parish may publish information about your child for the purposes of sharing his/her experiences on camp with other students and the broader community. This information may include your child's name, age, church class, photographs/ videos, your child's work and expressions of their opinion.

The communications in which these may occur include, but are not limited to:

Local Church and Archdiocese Websites and Newsletters

Facebook, Twitter, Official Church Social Media, You-Tube

Parents should be aware that when information is published on public websites and social media channels it can be linked to by third parties. It may be discoverable online for number of years, if not permanently. Search engines may also cache or retain copies of published information.

I have read the information about publishing student information (above) and

I give permission / I do not give permission (please circle your choice) to the Antiochian Village and the affiliated churches to publish images and information about my child (in the context of camp.)
